

The Rev. Dr. Valori Mulvey Sherer is an Episcopal priest currently serving as Rector at Emmanuel Episcopal Church in Webster Groves, MO. Valori serves the Diocese of Missouri as the Missioner of Hispanic-Latinx ministry for the Diocese of Missouri is on the diocesan Liturgy & Music Commission, the Pastoral Response Team, and the Diocesan Companion Committee with the Diocese of Puerto Rico. Certified in interim ministry through the Clergy Leadership Institute and as a trauma responder through the Trauma Resource Institute, Valori is also a trained clergy coach and has been a spiritual director for 30 years. Valori is the founding Executive Director of Partnership for ReNEWal, a non-profit, facilitating new ways of being church since 2016.

Prior to her tenure as a parish priest, Valori enjoyed a successful career in the nonprofit world as Executive Director of several victim advocacy agencies. Specializing in nonprofit start-up, troubleshooting, board development, and training, Valori worked in marketing and public relations in the medical/mental health industry while maintaining a freelance general marketing business.

Valori is a graduate of Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey, attended The School of Theology at the University of the South in Sewanee, TN where she received her Master of Divinity in 2005 and her Doctor of Ministry in 2010. Valori married Steve Sherer in 1988. They have three grown children, four grandchildren, and currently reside in St. Louis, MO.